This class is for any level of artist as we can all learn to become more confident with our strokes!

Drawing with Confidence ™ will teach you how to draw using shapes you already know how to draw and putting them in place to make up the greater whole of the object. A ballet dancer is the letter P, a rectangle, a square, a few circles and hills, a big smiling set of lips not where you'd think it goes, and a Saratoga sun hat! You won't believe how this all fits together!

A horse's head is a pear, neck a triangle, body an overstuffed duffle bag, legs strong tree branches. You will see the subject in a whole new light and move forward with amazing results! We will work with a focus on subject drawing, with scenery or background images or lighting being optional albeit fun and enhancing if time allows.
